

Contact: Lisa Peterson
Tel: 435-713-6971

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
October 12, 2010

Cache Valley Bus Drivers Place at State Bus Rodeo

At the Utah Urban Rural Specialized Transportation Association (URSTA) annual fall conference a bus rodeo was held in St George, Utah on September 17-18, 2010. The event had 32 participants from across the state that competed in the rodeo.

Cache Valley Transit District's bus drivers, Sam Tingey took 1st place and Allen Gammill took 2nd place in the large bus division. Options for Independence drivers Mandy Kienko took 1st place in the passenger van and Stan Clelland took 2nd place in cut a way division.

URSTA provides training, education and advocacy for transit providers in Utah. URSTA is also involved in statewide coordination planning. URSTA sponsors the Rodeo to train bus drivers and allow the drivers to test their skills and compete against drivers from all over Utah. The winners of the URSTA Rodeo will represent URSTA and Utah at the CTAA National ROADEO in Indiana in 2011.

Bringing Communities Together

###

For more information or to schedule an interview please call 435-713-6971